

How to Quick Reject

Select Quick Reject → select “Comments” → if you slot “other comments” you can fill out your rejected reason

The screenshot displays the JISE (Journal of Information Science and Engineering) management interface. At the top, there is a navigation bar with roles: Authors, Reviewers, Associate Editors (highlighted), PI, Managing Editor, and Staffs. Below this, a welcome message for Prof. Chen, Chung-Yang is shown, along with links for Personal Profile, Change Password, and Logout. A menu of actions is provided, including Accept/Decline Assignment, Paper Assignment, Review Conclusion, Submission Status, All Submissions, Return, Review Status (by paper, by reviewer), and Add Reviewers.

The main section is titled "Assign Papers to Reviewers - [AE : Chen, Chung-Yang]" and includes options for Assign RE, Remove RE, and Edit Mode. It shows a list of papers with a "Quick Reject" button. A modal window is open for paper ID 200763, showing the following details:

- Conclusion
- Paper ID : 200763 (1st review)
- Paper Title : A MDE Approach for Mobile User Interface Development
- Authors : Lassaad Ben Ammar
- 1. Recommendation : Reject
- 2. Comments :
 - This paper should be rejected due to poor English or organization
 - This paper should be rejected due to very minor contribution.
 - other comments

The modal window has "Submit" and "Close" buttons at the bottom.